

9 Hay Street Savernake NSW

Discover a unique slice of history with this exceptional offering: 10 parcels of land, all on one title, totalling 16,805 square metres (approx..) (1.68 hectares or 4.15 acres), complete with a stunning red brick church built in 1911.

Nestled in the peaceful village of Savernake, zoned Rural (RU1), this character-filled property is bursting with potential. The church has weathered the years beautifully, standing as a testament to timeless craftsmanship and could make the perfect country weekender or rural retreat.

Buyers are advised to contact the Federation Council to explore the possibility of converting the existing building into a residence.

Ideally situated between Mulwala and Berrigan, this is a rare opportunity to secure a distinctive property with history, charm, and room to dream.
